KEEP IT SAFE

Start with a clean grill, removing charred food debris to prevent bacteria growth. Scrub the grates while preheating the grill with a ball of aluminum foil or steel wool, or use a scraper for built up spots. If using a charcoal grill, be sure to remove ash after each use.

Prevent cross-contamination by staying aware of what surfaces, utensils and towels raw foods may touch. Use paper towels to clean spills when grilling, and a fresh plate for finished food. Wash all items in hot soapy water between uses or designate separate items for use with raw foods and cooked foods.

Don't use the same marinade before, during and after grilling. Instead, make extra and dispose of the original marinade that the meat sat in. While at the grill, never use the same brush on raw and cooked meats, use a new brush or wash between uses.

KILLER KABOB GAME

SKEWER DINNER WITH A VERSATILE SHISH KABOB

Try creative pairings with any of the following.

Protein: Chicken, Shrimp, Sirloin Steak, Pork Tenderloin

Fruit: Pineapple, Mango, Grapes

Vegetables: Bell peppers (all colors), Zucchini (green and yellow), Cherry Tomatoes, Fresh Mushrooms, Onions (Sweet White or Red), Baby Potatoes, 1/2" sliced corn on the cob

To cut onions for skewers carefully slice the onion in half lengthwise. Peel the skin off of each onion half and then place the onion cut sides down. Cut each piece in half, then half again to create four wedges. Peel layers apart.

To prevent protein, fruit and veggies from falling off the skewers while cooking, cut them slightly larger than the spaces between the grill grates, about 1-inch thick. Make sure to thread each piece right through the center. To avoid the tragedy of an entire kabob falling into the coals, place it across the grill grates diagonally. You can also grill them on foil or a grill mat or pan. To prevent sticking, marinate the kabobs or oil your grill grates before grilling.

Add flavor to kabobs by brushing them with your favorite marinade while grilling.

To prevent burning, soak wooden skewers in water or invest in metal skewers.

TAKE HEED TO TEMPS

Use a food thermometer to ensure meat is not dried out, but also cooked enough to kill harmful germs. Whether you use an instant read, wireless or laser surface thermometer, ensure it's approved for use on the grill. The following guide will help help you create expertly cooked meats.

Insert thermometer probe into the thickest portion of the meat, avoiding touching any bones, which will cause an incorrect reading.

- 145°F - Whole cuts beef, pork, lamb, veal, fish (let rest for 3 minutes after)
- 160°F - Hamburgers and other ground beef
- 165°F - all poultry, and pre-cooked meats, like hot dogs.

Note: Keep meat smoking cook temperatures at 225°F-300°F.

EATING IS A NECESSITY, BUT COOKING IS AN ART.

HAVE FUN WITH FRUIT

Honey Glazed Balsamic Peaches

1/2 c balsamic vinegar
1/2 c honey
Dash salt
6 peaches, pitted & halved

Directions

In a small pot, combine vinegar, honey and salt, cooking on low until blended, or about 3 minutes. Remove from heat, and scope out 1/3 c of the glaze.

Bring remaining glaze to a boil over medium heat. Cook, stirring, until mixture reduces and begins to thicken, about 4-6 minutes. Do not overcook or let bottom burn. Remove from heat.

Brush peaches with the balsamic mixture. Grill, covered, on an oiled rack over medium heat, brushing with glaze every so often. Grill about 6-8 minutes each side. Plate peaches, drizzle with reduced glaze and if desired, a dollop of vanilla Greek yogurt.

Chipotle Lime Watermelon Skewers

1 small seedless watermelon
1 T lime juice
1 tsp lime zest
1/2 tsp chipotle chili powder
1/2 T honey (or maple syrup)
1/2 T olive oil
1 T shredded mint
1/2 tsp sea salt

Directions

Cut the rind off of the watermelon and then cut watermelon into 2 inch cubes

In a bowl whisk together the lime juice, lime zest, olive oil, chipotle powder and honey.

Heat grill to high heat. Thread the watermelon cubes onto 5-6 skewers. Place on the grill and brush with the sauce. Cook skewers on 1 side for about 1 minute until grill marks form, flip and grill for 1 more minute. Remove from the heat.

Brush skewers with remaining sauce and sprinkle with shredded mint and salt before serving.

MARINADE BASICS

A marinade will add flavor, AND reduce possible carcinogens (HCA's and PAH's) that develop when meats are cooked at high temperatures.

Try this foolproof formula for your next marinade, or one of Andy's favorite combinations at the left:

1/2 cup olive oil
2 - 3 T vinegar or lemon juice
2 - 3 T fresh or dried herbs
2 garlic cloves, crushed and peeled

Let stand on vegetables or protein for 30 minutes - 24 hours, grill and enjoy! If brushing on more marinade as you grill, ensure you dip your brush in a new batch.

PERFECTLY GRILLED POTATOES

Serves 5-6

Ingredients

30 Yukon gold or red potatoes, golf ball size or slightly bigger

3 T Olive oil or coconut oil

Herbs and spices: 1 tsp each rosemary, garlic powder (or to taste)

Instructions

Parboil (or, blanch) the potatoes. Start with potatoes in a pot and cover with clean, cold water. Add a pinch of kosher salt, cover the pot, and turn the stove on high heat. Once boiling, reduce the heat slightly to keep it from boiling over (or remove the lid), and continue boiling for about 3-5 minutes. Test your potatoes with a fork or the tip of a sharp knife: it should go in with only slight resistance if done.

Remove the boiled potatoes from the heat, drain and let cool. If desired, place them in an ice bath to prevent further cooking. Once cool, halve or quarter the potatoes, depending on size. In a large mixing bowl, toss cut potatoes with the oil until all surfaces are coated.

Next, create a foil pack for grilling potatoes. Spread out tinfoil, being sure to use enough foil so all potatoes are covered. Lay out potatoes on the foil in an even layer. Sprinkle with half the seasoning, scramble them up a bit, and then add the other half seasoning. Close the tin foil pack by folding foil over and crimping sides, adding more tinfoil if needed

Heat grill to 350 degrees. Place the pack on the grill, close lid and cook the potatoes about 10 minutes. Open the packet, mix up the potatoes then continue cooking until golden and tender, about 10 more minutes. Continue to check potatoes until desired browning is achieved.
